Georgia Southwestern State University Summer 2009 Residence Hall Contract

This is a legally binding contract between Georgia Southwestern State University, acting through the Department of Residence Life, and enrolled students. In consideration of payments made, the student is entitled to occupy residence hall space and to services provided by the Residence Life Office, subject to terms set forth in this contract.

I. CONTRACT PERIOD AND ELIGIBILITY

(A) This contract, when appropriately signed and submitted, becomes effective upon its acceptance by the Department of Residence Life

(B) Residents of university housing facilities must be degree-seeking students who are registered for at least 3 credit hours at Georgia Southwestern and are required to pay the student activity fee. The university also provides housing for those enrolled in the English Language Institute of GSW.

(C) All residents who have earned less than 60 hours or have not already been on the meal plan for 4 semesters are required to purchase a meal plan. Food services privileges are non-transferable in part or in whole. The meal plan cannot be decreased any time after the scheduled add/drop deadline for the University.

II. CANCELLATIONS

(A) New and continuing applicants for campus housing who decide not to enroll at Georgia Southwestern must cancel their contract in writing no later than thirty (30) working days prior to the first official day of classes for the affected term. Cancellation after this date will result in forfeiture of the deposit.

(B) Students who have signed contracts and will enroll at Georgia Southwestern are obligated to the contract for the entire academic year and may not cancel this obligation.

III. RIGHT OF UNIVERSITY TO CANCEL

(A) The University reserves the right to refuse admission or readmission to University housing or to cancel the contract during the academic year for the student's failure to meet University requirements or to follow policies or regulations, or in the event of criminal conviction by civil authorities, or for any other reasonable cause.

(B) If the student fails to pay housing fees, additional fees, or assessments by the dates required by the University, the University is entitled to pursue any or all of the following actions: termination of the contract, evict the student from University housing, cancel registration, and withhold transcripts, diplomas or other records or documents maintained by the University.

IV. DEPOSITS AND RENT PAYMENTS

(A) For new residents, the $250 deposit must accompany the housing contract and is nontransferable to another person. The deposit is refunded according to the following conditions: 1) the University is unable to provide campus housing, 2) the terms of the contract are fulfilled, the student has been officially checked out of the room by a residence hall staff member, and the student is cleared of responsibility for damage to the room or building. The deposit will be forfeited, wholly or in part, when the student: 1) is responsible for damage to the room or building, 2) fails to follow departmental check out procedures 3) terminates the contract after the established deadlines or before the terms are completed, or 4) owes the University any debt, fine, or other obligations owed by the student.

(B) Per semester housing fees are due and payable in advance at the prescribed rate per academic term. If payment is not made by the stipulated deadline, the student's registration can be canceled.

(C) Monthly housing fees are due the first day of each of the month. For nine-month contracts payments will be due for the following months: August, September, October, November, December, January, February, March, and April. If payment is not received by the fifth day of the month, payment is considered late and a late fee of $35.00 will be assessed.

V. REFUNDS

Students who officially withdraw from the University qualify for a prorated refund of room fees as determined by the date of the official checkout of the residence hall. Refunds will be prorated by the formula set by the Business Office. Students who vacate their assigned room during the semester without an official withdrawal or official residency release and students who withdraw and fail to officially check out of the room with the Residence Life Staff or students who are evicted for disciplinary reasons will receive no refund of either housing fees or deposit.

VI. LIABILITY

Georgia Southwestern State University will not be liable for injury to persons or for loss of or damage to items of personal property that occurs in its buildings or on its grounds. This includes but is not limited to damage from fire, windstorm, vandalism, interruption of utilities, or condition of facilities. Students are strongly encouraged to carry appropriate insurance to cover possible loss of personal property.

VII. CONDITION OF FACILITIES

(A) Students are responsible for the condition of rooms, furnishings, and other items of property provided by the University. The student agrees to complete the Room Inspection Form by noting any discrepancies in the condition of the room described on the form at check-in. Upon checkout, the student will be billed for any repair or damages or replacement of University property beyond normal wear and tear.

(B) In the event of damage in hallways or common areas, students may be charged for repairs or replacement of damaged property when not attributed to a specific individual. Determination of room and common area damage, loss, or cleaning assessments shall be made by the University at its sole discretion.

VIII. OCCUPANCY

(A) Students may occupy residence hall rooms on the opening date announced prior to each term. Failure to occupy a reserved room within 24 hours of the beginning of classes may result in cancellation of a specific space assignment. Students contracting for housing prior to the first day of the term will be held responsible for payment of the entire term regardless of when they check in.

(B) Occupancy of rooms is allowed only by students to whom the room is assigned. Rooms may not be sublet to another person. In all residence halls, rooms shall be vacated by the date published by Residence Life.

(C) The University reserves the right to: (1) authorize or deny room and roommate changes, (2) place additional students in a student's assigned room, (3) consolidate vacancies, (4) redesignate building usage, or (5) relocate students for reasons including, but not limited to, renovation, maintenance, construction, roommate conflicts, and disciplinary sanctions.

(D) In all residence halls, rooms shall be vacated no later than twenty-four hours after cancellation of the contract.

IX. ROOM KEYS

A student will receive a key to his/her room from the residence hall staff during check-in procedures. It is the student's responsibility to keep the key secure and return it to the residence life staff upon vacating the room. A resident who loses his/her room key will be held responsible for the cost of lock replacement. Should the key be broken, a replacement key will be provided when the broken key is returned at the cost of $250 per key. Possession of unauthorized keys is prohibited.

X. ROOM ENTRY

While the University will make every effort to respect the privacy of the student, the university reserves the right of entry for inspection, verification of occupancy and repairs, or when there is reason to believe the Student Code of Conduct is being violated. The university also reserves the right of entry without notice in circumstances posing a threat to life or property or as reasonably necessary to preserve campus order and discipline.

XI. CONDUCT IN THE RESIDENCE HALLS

Students and their guests are expected to conduct themselves with proper regard for the rights, property, and privileges of other residents. Pets, solicitation of business, weapons, alcohol, controlled substances, alteration of locks, removal of furnishings, and tampering with any security or fire system is prohibited. Violations of these regulations may subject the individual to disciplinary action, confiscation of contraband, and removal from University housing or from the University itself.
