

Legacy Spotlight

Leave a Legacy to...Georgia
Southwestern State University

That is what Dr. William L. "Hap" and Mrs. Mildred Tietjen have done.

They know one of the most important financial instruments they will ever complete is their will. It allows them to distribute their assets from a lifetime of work to their family and friends and to Georgia Southwestern.

"A will is an extension of our life's goals," Hap Tietjen said. "We are strong supporters of Georgia Southwestern, having worked there for a combined 65 years. Mildred and I want to make sure that it will be able to continue pursuing the great work it is now doing—and has been doing for almost a century."

Without a will, your legacy is no longer yours. It could instead be in the hands of a court appointed executor who will distribute your assets strictly according to state laws.

Hap and Mildred Tietjen are showing their support for the institution by including GSW in their will. Their legacy will live in perpetuity. They would like you to consider doing the same.

Dr. & Mrs. Tietjen were awarded the Presidential Medallion for Dedicated Service to the University June 13, 1998.
