

AEOLIAN

The magazine of Georgia Southwestern State University • Fall 2004

A LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP

The Aeolian is published by the Division of University Relations at Georgia Southwestern State University.

The name Aeolian derives from Aeolus, appointed by the mythological god Zeus to be the keeper of the winds — both to calm and to arouse them. He was the King of the Aeolian Islands.

New Residents—Beginning this fall, members of the Office of Academic Affairs and the President’s Office have moved into the Newman Alumni Center. University Relations offices, including Alumni Relations, Development, and Public Relations, are currently housed there. The temporary relocation is needed while the Wheatley Administration Building undergoes restoration and renovation (see back cover for details).
